

'DESTINATION ADELAIDE' EYNESBURY SCHOLARSHIP SCHEME

Eynesbury International offers a scholarship scheme for international students from the People's Republic of China and Malaysia undertaking study at Eynesbury International between 01 July 2008 and 30 June 2009.

Up to 3 Scholarships (1 to citizens of the People's Republic of China and 2 to citizens of Malaysia) may be available to international students who are citizens of The People's Republic of China or Malaysia undertaking study at Eynesbury International. Students must be enrolled in either the South Australian Universities' Foundation Studies Program or the Diploma of Business or Diploma of Computing & Information Technology for which visas have been packaged with The University of Adelaide undergraduate degree program. The Scholarships comprise 50% of the tuition fees for the normal duration of the Eynesbury International program (a maximum of 1 year).

Application Process

There is no separate application process for the scholarships. An application for admission to Eynesbury International in between 01 July 2008 and 30 June 2009 packaged with The University of Adelaide will constitute an application for a scholarship. All applications for admission consistent with the eligibility and selection criteria will be considered automatically for a scholarship offer of a scholarship will be included in the Letter of Offer. No application fee is required to accompany the application for admission.

The deadline for accepting a scholarship is 4 weeks after receiving the offer. If the intake is less than 4 weeks from the date of offer, then the deadline is 1 week after the offer.

Conditions

- Each Scholarship will comprise a 50% tuition fee waiver for the normal duration of the program, i.e. a maximum of one year.
- Up to three scholarships awarded each year, 1 to citizens of the People's Republic of China and 2 to citizens of Malaysia.
- Scholarships will be awarded strictly on academic merit on a competitive basis according to the minimum academic entry requirements for the South Australian Universities' Foundation Studies Program, Diploma of Business and Diploma of Computing & Information Technology as published in the Eynesbury International prospectus and on the Eynesbury International website. Extra-curricular achievements will not be considered.
- Candidates who have already commenced studies at Eynesbury International at the time of application will not be considered.
- Candidates must be citizens of either the People's Republic of China or Malaysia with the exception of the following citizenship exclusions:
  - dual citizens of Australia and New Zealand;
  - citizens of Hong Kong and;
  - citizens of Macau.
- Candidates must have their visa for study at Eynesbury International packaged with The University of Adelaide undergraduate degree prior to commencing studies at Eynesbury International.
- Candidates are required to enrol at Eynesbury International as "international students" and must maintain "international student" status for the duration of their enrolment at Eynesbury International. Candidates who obtain Australian permanent resident status during the course of their Eynesbury International studies will forfeit their scholarship.
- Scholarships are available for the normal duration of the program, i.e. a maximum of one year, subject to satisfactory progress (i.e. pass all subjects at minimum Pass level). Extensions beyond the normal duration of the program are not available.
- All successful recipients will be required to pay 50% of the current tuition fees for their academic program prior to commencing study at Eynesbury International. The Scholarship will apply to the remaining 50% of the tuition fees.
- All successful recipients will be required to pay Overseas Student Health Cover for the full duration of the academic program at Eynesbury International.
- Successful recipients requiring preparatory English language courses prior to commencement of their academic program must undertake those studies at their own cost.
- Scholarships under this scheme cover study at Eynesbury International only. This scholarship does not cover any tuition fees at the University of Adelaide.
- Scholarships holders must commence study at Eynesbury International between 01 July 2008 and 30 June 2009.
- Obtaining this scholarship does not guarantee a place at The University of Adelaide.
- Students who fail to meet the entry requirements for admission to a University of Adelaide degree will retain their scholarship for the academic program at Eynesbury International subject to satisfactory progress.