

UniSA Health Sciences-Eynesbury Scholarship Scheme

Eynesbury International offers a scholarship scheme for international students undertaking study at Eynesbury International in 2006/2007.

Up to 3 Scholarships will be available to international students undertaking study at Eynesbury International. Students must be enrolled in the South Australian Universities' Foundation Studies Program for which visas have been packaged with the University of South Australia undergraduate degree programs listed below. The Scholarships comprise 50% of the tuition fees for the normal duration of the Eynesbury International program (a maximum of 1 year).

Bachelor of Nutrition & Food Sciences IBNF Bachelor of Laboratory Medicine IBBY

Bachelor of Nursing IBNU Bachelor of Health Science IBHL

Bachelor of Medical & Pharmaceutical Biotechnology IBBY

Bachelor of Applied Science (Human Movement & Health Studies) IBHT

Application Process

There is no separate application process for the scholarships. An application for admission to Eynesbury International in 2006/2007 packaged with the University of South Australia will constitute an application for a scholarship. All applications for admission consistent with the eligibility and selection criteria will be considered automatically for a scholarship.

No application fee is required to accompany the application for admission.

The deadlines for receipt of applications and complete supporting documentation are:

Program	Intake	Applications Close	Winners notified
South Australian Universities' Foundation Studies	30 January 2007 (Standard)	30 November 2006	30 December 2006
	24 April 2007 (Accelerated)	24 February 2007	24 March 2007

Conditions

- Each Scholarship will comprise a 50% tuition fee waiver for the normal duration of the program, ie a maximum of one year.
- Up to three scholarships will be awarded each year to students applying for the South Australian Universities' Foundation Studies Programs with intakes listed in the table above. All programs will be conducted at Eynesbury International.
- Scholarships will be awarded strictly on academic merit on a competitive basis according to the minimum academic entry requirements for the South Australian Universities'

Foundation Studies Program as published in the Eynesbury International prospectus and on the Eynesbury International website. Extra-curricular achievements will not be considered.

- Applicants who have already commenced studies at Eynesbury International at the time of application will not be considered.
- Candidates must have their visa for study at Eynesbury International packaged with the above listed University of South Australia undergraduate degree prior to commencing studies at Eynesbury International.
- Candidates are required to enrol at Eynesbury International as "international students" and must maintain "international student" status for the duration of their enrolment at Eynesbury International. Candidates who obtain Australian permanent resident status during the course of their Eynesbury International studies will forfeit their scholarship.
- Scholarships are available for the normal duration of the program, ie a maximum of one year, subject to satisfactory progress (ie pass all subjects at minimum Pass level). Extensions beyond the normal duration of the program are not available.
- All successful recipients will be required to pay 50% of the current tuition fees for their academic program prior to commencing study at Eynesbury International. The Scholarship will apply to the remaining 50% of the tuition fees.
- All successful recipients will be required to pay their own Overseas Student Health Cover for the full duration of the academic program at Eynesbury International.
- Successful recipients requiring preparatory English language courses prior to commencement of their academic program must undertake those studies at their own cost.
- Scholarships under this scheme cover study at Eynesbury International only. This scholarship does not cover any tuition fees at the University of South Australia.
- Scholarship holders must commence study at Eynesbury International in 2006/2007. By negotiation, winners may defer until a later intake in 2007. Scholarship winners will not be permitted to defer commencement until 2008.
- Obtaining this scholarship does not guarantee a place at the University of South Australia.
- Students who fail to meet the entry requirements for admission to a University of South Australia degree will retain their scholarship for the academic program at Eynesbury International subject to satisfactory progress.
